Thursday 18	Chair of S Peter	12.45 pm	Mass
Often now associated with the Pope's throne in St Peter's, Rome - an oak chair "damaged by cuts and worms" embellished with ivory mounts, and iron rings for carrying handles. However, the Feast pre-dates this chair. Inscribed in Latin and Greek: "O Pastor of the Church you feed all Christ's lambs and sheep" This is the symbolic authority of the Bishop of Rome as Vicar of Christ. (Feast not now kept in January by modern Roman Catholics)
